Section 11.01 Limitation of Liability. To the fullest extent permitted by the Act and other applicable law, a director of this Corporation shall not be personally liable for monetary damages as such for any action taken, or any failure to take action, unless the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of his or her office under Chapter 57, Subchapter B of the Act, or any successor provisions thereto, and the breach or failure to perform constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness. This provision shall not apply to the responsibility or liability of a director pursuant to any criminal statute or the liability of a director for the payment of taxes pursuant to local, state or federal law.

Section 11.02 Scope of Indemnification – Third-Party Actions. The Corporation shall indemnify any current or former director or officer of the Corporation, and may indemnify any other current or former employee or agent of the Corporation, who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise (each, an “Indemnified Person”), against expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the Indemnified Person in connection with such threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding if such Indemnified Person acted in good faith and in a manner the Indemnified Person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not of itself create a presumption that the Indemnified Person did not act in good faith and in a manner that the Indemnified Person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 11.03 Scope of Indemnification – Derivative and Corporate Actions. The Corporation shall indemnify any current or former director or officer of the Corporation, and may indemnify any other current or former employee or agent of the Corporation, who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation (each, a “Company Indemnified Person”), or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such Company Indemnified Person in connection with the defense or settlement of the action if such Company Indemnified Person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation. Indemnification shall not be made under this section in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the Company Indemnified Person has been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court of common pleas of the judicial district embracing the county in which the registered office of the Corporation is located or the court in which the action was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses that the court of common pleas or other court shall deem proper.

Section 11.04 Expenses. The Corporation shall pay expenses incurred by a current or former director or officer of the Corporation, and may pay expenses incurred by any other Indemnified Person or Company Indemnified Person, in defending an action or proceeding, who may be indemnified under Section 11.02 or 11.03 hereof in advance of the final disposition of any action or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation.

Section 11.05 Successor Rights to Indemnification. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to these Bylaws shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

Section 11.06 Insurance. The Corporation shall have the authority to procure insurance or to create a fund of any nature, which may, but need not be, under the control of an independent party, or otherwise secure or insure in any manner any indemnification obligations undertaken by the Corporation. The authority granted by this Section 11.06 shall be exercised by the Board of the Corporation.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Section 12.01 Policy. It is recognized that occasions may arise when a member of the Board or an officer of the Corporation has a financial interest in a contract or transaction upon which action is to be taken or withheld by the Board or a committee thereof. (c) No contract or transaction in which a director or officer has a financial interest shall be knowingly entered into by the Corporation unless it has been authorized in good faith by the Board in accordance with the Act.
